LETTER

FROM

The Committee of Worcester: Read in the House of Commons,

Concerning the Assotiating of foure Counties for the KING.

Sir,

WE having, by the vegilancy of the Gover-nour of Hartlebury, discovered a design of the Cavaliers, of Worcester-shire, Salop, Stafford and He- reford shires, and in part prevented, thought good to give you informations of the particulars; which are as follow, Sir Henry Lingham, and all the Gentlemen of

of Herefordshire engaging for the surprizing of Hereford Col. Drake, Major Eliot, Leutenant Long, and divers others, and Broughton Parson, and divers others, and ned for the surprizing of Hereford, the Count of Salop, Stafford, and Worcester, of Sir Bazill Brookes, neere adjacent, They were to have entered Thursday night last, but by the meere providence of God, a party of Captaine Fenets Dragoones, upon Wednesday last at foure of the clocke in the afternoon, coming accidentally to Wolverly to the house of Parson Broughton there, found in a Corn-field behind the house, halfe an hundred weight of powder, and a quantity of March, And tooke Major Hercot and brought him prisoner to Hartlebury Castle; where about twelve of the clock in the night he confessed the designe; Upon which, Letters were sent post to the Committees of Salop, and Stafford, and to us of Worcester, immediately upon the receipt of the Letters, forces were dispatched from all these places to the place designed by the Enemy, and came first to the houses, and possessed themselves thereof, The Enemy rendezvoned according to appointment and came to the houses, but finding they were prevented fled, our Forces killed two, tooke 18 prisoners, and two Horses, amongst which prisoners there are Colonel Dudley, Major Eliot, Leutenant Long, and one Hadgess belonging to the Train of the Lord Ashley. The foure last were this day brought to Worcester by Captaine Fenet, the rest taken to Shrewsbury. In this action, the Townes of Bewdley, Ridderminster, Ashley.

 Postscript.

We have intelligence that Sir Francis Oatley is gone towards London, and we believe if careful search be made he may be found out.

The Copy of a Letter from Shrewsbury importing the designe of Allotiating of foure Counties for the King.

Sir,
 There was a designe to have raised a party for the King in the County of Hereford, Salop, Stafford and Worcester. Col. Sir Henry Lingham was to be chiefe for Hereford, Sir Francis Oatley for Salop, Col. Lane for Stafford, and Col. Dudley for Worcester shires, Some suspition was made of the design, by cause of ielousie, wherewith the Committee of the County of Salop had advetisements, And upon search, there were found

found with Major Harcot who with Major Elliot and divers others, were of this confederacy. Upon examination of the said Major Harcot, he (at last) confessed that there was to be a meeting of Officers for the associating of these five Counties on Thursday last at Dawley Castle. Hereupon further inquiry was made into the business, and the Committee by their diligent enquiry discovered that Sir Francis Oately, had received a letter from the Lord Byron, offering him that he had commands from Prince Charles, to let him know that his Highnesse had such an high esteeme of him, that he desired that he might command all the Forces for Shropshire, for the other Colonells it is supposed had the like Letters, They were to garrison 2 places for the King, the one Maudley, (Sir Basil Brookes house) And the other Dawley Castle, The Committee hearing where some of those who were to be Officers were met near Dawley Castle, sent out a party who surprised 8 whom they brought away prisoners.

The Copy of a Letter from Yorke, to a Member of the Honourable House of COMMONS.

SIR,

I Doubt not but long ere this you have heard of the surprisall of those 600 Horse, and about 300 Gentlemen Troopers and their Officers in Dor-setshire, and of the taking of that Swarm by Regnier and our men, which was lately cast out of that wal-pish Rocks at Tinsford, which hath since cast other two lesser Swarms, the one is hived at Homby Hall, the other at Thornley, but before they wax much, I hope they will be catch-ed by the combs: for it is intended presently to send men to lye about them, They now grow both strong (as it appears) and bold, for notwithstanding that your party that is now taken was parted from them, yet they the other night fell upon them at Ferribridge very desperately, where there was a hot conflict for a while, but in the conclusion, they were beaten back
